DIY!

Our fun, festive night will kick off with a keynote from Easton's own Kristi Marsh, national speaker and author of Little Changes. You'll also get to mix and scoop your own DIY cleaning and beauty products at make-and-take stations around the room. You won't go home empty handed!

Don your heels, grab a girlfriend or two, and come chat, laugh and mingle with us. We'll toast to life, to health, and to the power of women! It's an event you don't want to miss!

What to bring: Containers of all shapes and sizes with tight-fitting lids for your DIY products.
